Subject:-

PENSION - Compassionate Gratuity -(Bellary)- Muhammed Yakoob Saheb (late) -peon, Taluk - Office, Bellary - Application from Rasool Bi (Mother).

Read - the following: -

Letter from the Collector of Bellary, No. Ref. 5482/37-A-4, dated 18th November 1937.

REFERENCE:-

In para. 1 of the Collector's letter read above, it is reported that the peon (Md. Yakoob) was murdered on 25-5-1937, owing to private animosity. The Collector is requested to ascertain and report in detail, the circumstances under which the peon met his death, and whether it was brought about by any act on the part of the deceased.

2. In the record of enquiry (by the Revenue Inspector, Bellary) it is reported that the deceased had contracted petty debts to the extent of Rs.300/-. No reference has, however, been made to this by the Collector. The Collector is requested to report whether the debts have been verified, and found to be genuine.

(Sd) S. Raghava Ayyangar,

Assistant Secretary,

To The Collector of Bellary, with an application, record of enquiry, descriptive roll and the Military discharge - certificate, Service register and leave account of the deceased to be returned with reply.

Letter from E.C.Wood Esquire, I.C.S., Collector, Bellary, No. Ref. C.A4-5482/37, dated 26-1-1938.

Pension.- Compassionate gratuity -Md. Yakoob Sahib late peon -Taluk Office -Bellary -Application from Rasool bi - further report -submitted.

Ref. - Board's D.5457/37-1, dated 4-12-1937.

A copy of Bellary Tahsildar's report is enclosed.

The peon was murdered on account of a petty quarrel of Rs.1-8-0, which he owed to the murderer. The murder was committed on a sudden outburst of frenzy. So it is to be considered that his death was not brought about by any act on his part. The deceased is said to have borrowed Rs.300/- from a money-lender of Tadpatri, Anantapur District and the Tahsildar reports that though there is no way to verify it there is no reason to disbelieve it.

The service register and record of enquiry are resubmitted.

Copy of Tahsildar's report L.Dis. 278/38-A-2, dated 19th January 1938.

Ref: - Your C.No. 5482/37, dated 1[illegible]-12-1937.

Muhammad Yakub Saheb, late peon, Taluk Office, Bellary, was murdered and the Criminal case is now awaiting trial in the Sessions Court, Bellary. It is ascertained that his death was not brought about by any action on his part.

I submit herewith the statement recorded from the mother of the deceased. She states that debt of Rs.300/- was incurred by the deceased during his life time from a Sowcar at Tadpatri. Although it is not possible to verify the statement, I have no reason to disbelieve it. The connected records are enclosed.

English Translation.

Statement of Rasool Bi, mother of late peon, Yakub Saheb of Taluk Office, Bellary, dated 19-8-1937.

Yakub Saheb, Taluk Peon is my son. While he was on duty he was beaten by Baba Saheb, Mara Saheb, and Khaja and he - thereby succumbed in the Hospital (Bellary), on the same day. He served as peon for 10 or 12 years. Both in the military and in the Civil Service he was faithfully serving Government. He was unmarried. I am an old woman and was under his protection. Another son of mine Dastagiri Saheb, is serving as Police Constable at Hadagalli. He has not been protecting me. As I have been living with the deceased for a long time, Dastagiri quarreled with me and neglected me. My deceased son contracted a debt of about Rs.300/- . When the creditors pressed for payment, I told them that I cannot repay them, as I am starving myself without food. Neither my son nor myself own lands or houses. My second son Dastagiri has not been supporting me. He is a bad fellow. So I did not go to him. I find it difficult to maintain myself. Now & then I starve for want of food. I am aged 70 and am too o to live by labour. I request that compassionate gratuity may be granted to me. I have neither parents, nor broth nor any relations to support me. I request that Governmen may be pleased to sanction gratuity and order payment fro the Imperial Bank of India, Bellary.
